

ANOKA FARMS (Windswept) Arthur and Vivian Lancaster settled on their family homestead in 1925. They were told the farm was named by the Colville Indians who regularly crossed the prairie to trade in Spokane. Originally the farm was a dairy and in later years produced wheat and bluegrass. Like most farm wives Vivian was a marvelous cook. The delight of any visit to Grandma's was a piece of her special peanut brittle. This same recipe is now used by her grandchildren to produce Anoka Farms Original Peanut Brittle. To appease candy lovers, we have developed several new varieties. Chocolate Dipped Peanut Brittle, Espresso Oh! Brittle and White Gold. The choice is yours - enjoy your choice! Makes a truly unique and special gift.
